. . . Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 13) out of the frame and took it home. This was a week ago and not a word has been said. I feel now that I'd like to say something. How should I go about it? S.L.P.

Dear S.L.P.: Tell your son and his wife if they should ever miss the portrait you gave them not to look for it, because you took it home when you discovered it was only the frame they were interested in.

Dear Ann: We are two 13-year-old girls who did a foolish thing and are now sorry. How can we make up for it?

Our English teacher was absent for several days. We found out she was sick with virus flu. We looked up her number in the phone book and called her, not to talk—just to bother her.

We did this for five days. One night we phoned 11 times. After she'd say "Hello" we'd ask if it was the city dog pond, or Duffy's Tavern or some other silly question.

Now that she's back we feel like criminals. We THINK she knows it was us, and we feel crummy. Should we confess or hope she doesn't know, and let the matter drop?

—THE DIRTY DOGS

Dear Dogs: Confess and get it off your mind and conscience. Telephone games are for 3-year-olds and should be played with dime-store toy phones only.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDER'S booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Copyright 1959, Field Enterprises, Inc.
